

It's Raining Cake

Hi! We're your bake-off contestants
And have we got news for you - you better listen!
Get ready, all you hungry folks
And leave those umbrellas at home - Alright!

Cake mix is rising... timer's ticking slow
According to all sources
Met is the place to go
'Cause today for the first time
Just about half past eight
For the first time in history
It's gonna start raining cake

It's raining cake! Hallelujah!
It's raining cake! Amen!
I'm gonna bake some
I'm gonna skip out the gym
Fill myself with cake to the brim!

It's raining cake! Hallelujah!
It's raining cake! So much to eat!
Muffin, tart, sponge, soufflé
Lemon drizzle and peach parfait

God bless Mary Berry, she adores tiramisu
She turned on the ovens and she did what she had to do
She taught every baker
All kinds of sweet delights
So that each and every one of us
Could eat an apple pie

It's raining cake! Hallelujah!
It's raining cake! Amen!

I'm gonna bake some
I'm gonna skip out the gym
Fill myself with cake to the brim!

It's raining cake! Hallelujah!
It's raining cake! So much to eat!
Muffin, tart, sponge, soufflé
Lemon drizzle and peach parfait

It's raining cake!
